MUSIC AT WAIKIKI INN

The Nihau is receiving slight repairs at the Fort street wharf. Commodore Beckley did not leave as purser of the Kinau Tuesday. Dr. Raymond left his wife and child at San Francisco to remain some time. There are five or six sailing vessels about due at this port from San Francisco.

There will be a sale of pianos Wednesday, the 31st inst. See Morgan's column.

R. W. Atkinson is finishing up the industrial statistics of these Islands for the U. S. census.

Cards are out for an "at home" at the Neumann home from 8 to 10 p. m. on the evening of the 31st inst.

The Zealandia sails for San Francisco at 4 p. m. today, taking the Shriners back to their various homes.

The Amy Turner sailed for San Francisco late yesterday afternoon, carrying a full cargo of sugar.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON and EVENING

Drummers and buglers to take part in this evening's parade will meet at the drill shed promptly at 7 o'clock.

The Noeau was to have got away on her regular route this morning but this plan was changed and she will not sail until tomorrow at 9 a. m.

Walter J. Morrison, a passenger from this port in the S. C. Allen, died aboard that vessel October 10, while on the way from this port to San Francisco.

A bridge, ferry or balloon service—or even a fairly respectable crossing—would be a great boon if established across King street between the Capitol and the Courthouse.

VANPRAAG, SHARP and STICKNEY

Over a hundred Shriners, their wives and children spent yesterday in a drive to the Fall. There was a very heavy wind and the ladies were made a bit uncomfortable but the trip was thoroughly enjoyed.

The Zealandia is gaily dressed in flags and pennants today by way of saying farewell to Hawaii and on behalf of the Shriners and their families, whose visit here has been a continued round of pleasure.

While walking home from school the other day, the little daughter of Richard Daly, the sergeant-at-arms at Republican headquarters, fell and sprained her ankle. She was attended by Dr. Howard. The little girl is doing well and will be able to get about again in a few days.

The Sheridan is scheduled to sail from San Francisco November 16, her repairs and alterations having been nearly completed. She will call at this port and Guam on her way to Manila. It is estimated that the Sheridan, when alterations are completed, will be able to carry 1842 soldiers as well as 92 cabin passengers.
